

O Lord, Our Father, Shall We be Confounded

Ps. 22:5

Johann Heermann, 1630

tr., Catherine Winkworth, 1869, alt.

HERZLIEBSTER JESU (11 11 11 5)

Johann Crüger, 1598-1662

1. O Lord, our Fa - ther, shall we be con - found - ed,
 2. Lord, put to shame Thy foes who breathe de - fi - ance,
 3. Be Thou our Help - er and our strong De - fend - er;
 4. 'Tis vain to trust in man; for Thou, Lord, on - ly
 5. Thou art our He - ro, all our foes sub - du - ing;

Who, tho' by tri - als and by woes sur - round - ed, On Thee al -
 And vain - ly make their might their sole re - li - ance; In mer - cy Speak to our foes and cause them to sur - ren - der. Yea, long be - Art the De - fense and Com - fort of the lone - ly. With Thee to Save Thou Thy lit - tle flock they are pur - su - ing. We seek Thy one for help are still re - ly - ing, To Thee are cry - ing?

 turn to us, the poor and strick - en, Our hope to quick - en.
fore their plans have been com - plet - ed, They are de - feat - ed.
 lead, the bat - tle shall be glor - ious, And we vic - tor - ious.
 help: for Je - sus sake be near us; Great Help - er hear us!